He had a manga series that was supported by many people and then adapted into Anime, and the game enjoyed the love of fans over the years. Even now, there are still many people who are interested in this topic. It always keeps the fire and brings in revenue for each related product period. Even the author himself, after stopping composing the plot of Seven Dragon Ball for a long time, still returned and continued to play Dragon Ball Super. The fact that many later games use pictures of celebrities such as Songoku or Vegeta unofficially is still widespread. Easy to play and easy to control. Stick Z: Super Dragon Fight is such a product. It allows the player to control familiar characters from the popular Dragon Ball series, but is redesigned with very new images. If you have tried to play some ONESOFT games, then there will definitely be strange Stickman designs. This time the game manufacturer continues to use it to form Dragon Ball to create this product. Stick Z: Super Dragon Fight is an action game with specialized and solid antagonism, unmissable with other factors that make it thin. It's like an original comic; these characters meet and fight to defend their own ideal of life. And often Songoku will be the ultimate winner because he is the guardian of the Earth. But in this game, if you choose the character Songoku, it is unlikely that you have achieved an absolute victory. Because everyone has the same number of skills and achieves an accurate balance of power. So the winner is the one who can make the most of the character's ability, which is the main character of Aura (LMAO). 50+ bosses with 100+ skills The in-game character system is extremely diverse and designed with the same image as Stickman. However, do not think that this type of image will make your character boring. Because all characters have their own characteristics on the body, especially in Dragon Ball series, everything is designed in a clear and different way. You will see that each character will have a hairstyle and hair color that just looking at it, you know who it is right away. Moreover, their costumes are also designed to express the character of the character. You can control in Songoku, Vegeta, Trunks, Piccolo, ... classic characters that are familiar to players and fans, as well as new characters that appear in Dragon Ball Super, e.g. Since this is a face-to-face fighting game, this means that there is little interference in leveling the stats, but RPG games, so the character statistics are also quite simple. Each character will have special skills and several forms of transformation. During the battle, you can use your 4 special skills and assault attack. There will also be 2 spells.
